PRESIDENT BRUSH STANDS BY M'GRAW

Special to the Boston American.

PITTSBURGH, June 3.—In relation to the controversy over the election of President William H. Taft, John T. Brush, president of the New York National League Club, today made the following announcement:

"The statement to the public Mr. Taft has made is that he is satisfied with Judge Sutherland's decision, but regrets that I have seen it to repudiate my own legislation and seek relief in the courts against the 'corruption' of my own law.

"In reply, I say that I did not apply to the courts for a declaration of my law, but to restrain Mr. Taft from violating the National League and the rules relative to the removal of players by the umpire.

"The rule says that any player removed for a cause for a violation of the playing rules during the season of 1902 shall be ineligible to the playing of the league for each season and if in addition there is a provision in the constitution of the league, which is not to be removed by the president of the league, said suspension shall carry with it a fine of $100 for each season day so suspended."

"Mr. Taft was not removed from the game by the umpire on May 10. Had a great many witnesses and attorneys in court that was charged on May 10. Had a great many witnesses and attorneys in court that was charged on May 10. Had a great many witnesses and attorneys in court that was charged on May 10.

"I personally begged the board to listen to a statement, but it refused to do so. The player is not the only individual for whom laws should be made."

SCHOENFUSS MADE GOOD IN THE BOX

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—

In a game full of brilliant hitting, Harvard took the Red Sox into the lead by the score of 5 to 0. It was the second of the year for the Crimson and was the result of the masterful hitting of Frank Schoenfuuss and Paul Colman, backed up by an errorless game on the part of the team behind them.

For the Red Sox, pitched well, holding the Harvard hitters down to five hits. The team leading him at times the most brilliant of his career. He pitched a full game and showed at third base some of his best work. He pitched a full game and showed at third base some of his best work.

HARVARD MAY GET THOMPSON

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 3.—Yale is started at a point which has reached here to the effect that Thompson, the Andover football guard, has decided to go to Harvard instead of coming to Yale. Thompson lives in Waterville and has said recently that he intends to come to Yale. Statements were made here today that he now says that he will go to Harvard.

Thompson is the best preparatory school player who will enter college from any academy the coming fall. It was stated at Yale today that Ladd and Brown, the history of the Andover football nine, have decided to go to Harvard instead of Yale. Harvard has had a large set of coaches at Andover this year, including Hayes, the former Harvard pitcher, and Lloyd Conner, Bill Bell of the Harvard football and basketball team, and their influence has been felt in a great way in the absorption of prominent Andover athletes.
